Donna captures significant events on canvas as a lifelong memory. She engages celebrities and guests to add to her paintings. In the past Donna was commissioned by Queensland Racing to paint three historical paintings of their winter carnival, also Tourism Queensland with the "best job in the world" finalists re-creating their journey of Queensland's Great Barrier Reef and Islands. This year some events have included, The Magic Millions Horse Sales on the Gold Coast, the Melbourne Truck Show where sale of prints raised $24,000.00 for the McGrath Foundation and QBE Riverfire in Brisbane, where Channel 9 did live crosses to her. Often celebrities are invited to fundraising events, but what role do they have at the event? By inviting them to add to the canvas, it gives them something tangible to take part in. Guests at the event also enjoy watching their favourite celebrities/identities adding to the canvas.

Donna can paint in your own Marquee or Corporate Box

Donna invites guests in the Marquee to also add to the canvas, helping to create a very special memento of their Sporting hospitality.

The same clients are often invited to many different events under the Corporate Entertainment, hospitality banner. What Donna provides is a point of difference, through interactive entertainment for your clients. Giving them a positive creative experience they will remember. Not only capturing the atmosphere of the day, but also their goodwill!

Donna does her research to make sure that the end product, the painting, captures a significant moment in the particular event which is being painted.

State of Origin Moments

Magic Millions Horse Sales

How does it work?

Donna sets up her easel and canvas in the Marquee/hospitality area. Throughout the day, clients are invited to add to the canvas. They sign the back of the canvas.

The end result is a painting which becomes a significant piece of sporting memorabilia.

Projects and Launches

Donna can create your project in Canvas. Your guests are invited to add to the canvas, giving them an up close and informative view of your project. Donna re-creates the integral elements of your design into the painting. The art work can be a contemporary representation of your building, or a true to life version of your plans. This gives your guests an added dimension to experiencing your new venture. As guests have added to the canvas, they have some component of ownership of the painting, and therefore have fondness of your Brand.
